Party — that's what Mayfield students live to do. Every Friday students sit distracted in classes, eagerly anticipating the last block of the day, 'cause then they're free to party all week-end long. Dragging through tests, homework and everyday schedules can make an over-worked student long for all the breaks she can get, and when she's not partying on the week-ends she's celebrating at Mayfield. Every celebration at Mayfield is the highlight of a tedious school year that can break the monotony — and does Mayfield know how to celebrate! Christmas Dance . . . barbecues . . . Father-Daughter night . . . Big Sister-Little Sister lunches . . . Carol Night . . . Prom . . . retreats . . . term plays. The list goes on forever. Through these events Mayfield maintains a spirit of celebration; a celebration of the spirit and the ideals of the Mayfield students.

With the 1985-1986 school year, Mayfield introduced an exceptional person into our lives. Since his arrival he has brought qualities of warmth, vigor, and caring sensitivity that are uniquely his own to brighten the Mayfield campus. He warmly greets students down the hall as he bustles about his many responsibilities. Friday masses are creative, different, and filled with his many words of wisdom. Oftentimes he lends a sympathetic ear and warm cuddly hugs to many a forlorn and saddened student. Never harsh or judgmental, he is always there for anyone who needs him. Father Ralph has brought his own unselfish caring and warmth of spirit to the Mayfield students in a way that only he could. He has wisely guided the L.I.F.E. group, started Campus Capers, and now takes charge of CCA and CAM. Because of his strong determination and optimistic, yet realistic view of life, nothing can get him down. We all love you Father Ralph, and Mayfield wouldn't be the same without you.

Thanks Mom and Dad, it's been great.....

Mom and Dad, what a perfect fit for eighteen years! We've been lucky we picked each other.

I love you.

Carrie

Dearest Mom and Dad,

Thank you very much for the wisdom and understanding that you have given me over the years. You have sacrificed so much for me, and at times I know I seemed ungrateful, but deep inside I will always know how lucky I am to have such wonderful parents.

Love always,
Ruth

Mom and Dad,

I guess in some ways you were right; I have grown up some. In the past four years I've learned facts, thoughts, fears, and feelings. I discovered the line between dreams and reality. I know, too, where I stand in relation to that line. I think I'm going to make it through life, thanks to you.

Thanx again,

Lisarnopp

Dear Mom and Dad,

Well, we finally made it! Four years of fun and four years of worry, but we all survived and now I just want to say thank you for the love and support that made it all possible. Thanx and I love you!

Diane DeSha

Dear Mom, Dad, Erin, and Steve,

Thankx for being my training wheels. You've always supported me and helped me keep my balance in times of crisis. You've guided me the first block; now it's time to venture around the corner on my own two wheels.

I love you,

Genna

Thanks Mom and Dad, I know I rarely say it, but I love you two sooo much!

Tammy

Mom and Dad —

Thank you for supporting me even after all we've been through together! I sure did need it! I love you both so much! Love always — Shannon

Thanks Mom and Dad; I couldn't have made it without you.

Love always,
Bolade

Thanks Mom and Dad (Jim) for being there for me. For giving me all the good times and especially helping me through the bad times. I would have never made it through these past four years without you. I love you.

Dannie

Dear Mom and Dad,

Thank you for your support and guidance. I think of you not only as my parents but more importantly as my best friends. Couldn't have made it without you. God bless you, Nancy # so let's kick back and celebrate !!

Dear Mom and Dad,

It seems like yesterday that you held my hand, taking me to my first kindergarten class. I can't believe that now I am graduating high school. I just want to say "thank you" for all the love and support you have given me.

Love,
Chiga

Dear Mom and Dad,

That wasn't so bad, was it?

Love Always,
Marl

Thought the good times and the bad times, I wouldn't have made it without you, MOM. Thanks for spoiling me mom!!!
DAD, I know it's hard being there for a teenage girl of today, so thanks for your wisdom and good intentions.

Fabia

Dear Mom and Dad,

You two are definitely the best. When I had doubts and I was feeling down you always came through and proved your love by believing in me and standing by me during hard times. All those hard times have made me grow 1000 times closer to you. Thanks!

I love you!

Love,
Allison Jones

Dear Mom Bear and Dad Bear,

Thank you for all your love and encouraging support throughout the best four years one could ask for. You're the greatest and we love you!

Desma Bear and Delphi Bear

And it passes like a summer's day
With a blistering heat that never fades
But then you look back and regretfully see
That it passed by like a winter's breeze

I love you Mom and Dad,
Thanx,

Diana aka Patka

Dear Mom,

Thanks for being my mom. Wouldn't Daddy be proud of both of us? I love you.

Gigi

Holiday Cheer

Mayfield's special and favorite time of the year revolves around the Christmas and holiday season. The school is beautifully decorated by the Sophomores with winter pine trees, holly, and mistletoe, while December music rings through the halls, bringing a warm feeling to all students and faculty. Our yearly Christmas dance was especially fun this year and ended the semester in high spirits.

SADD

They brought information to the campus regarding the problems of alcohol abuse. They also introduced the "buddy system" to prevent friends from drinking drunk. S.A.D.D. did a great job this year.

A.F.S.

In past years the American Field Service has provided students with the opportunity to visit a school abroad and to experience a different culture. This year was no exception. With Boo Fuller acting as president, AFS has given Franzica Binder, exchange student from Germany, a chance to go to school at Mayfield and experience California's cultural scene.

Guides

School spirit and pride was the strongest force behind this year's Campus Guides. Apart from showing a record number of new families around the campus, members also spoke at junior high schools all around the area. Campus Guides gave prospective students and parents a chance to see Mayfield and all it has to offer.

Crazy Creators

Mayfield's hardworking women journalists, after a challenging, but fun-filled year, created this spectacular yearbook! The Editor-in-Chief, Delphi Murphy, inspired by Ms. Johnson, ran the organization and kept each department busy, so that every deadline would be met. The editors of each division, Business Editor, Carrie Krinock; Layout Editor, Desma Murphy; Art Editor, Chiga Funaki; Photography Editor, Shannon Riordan; and Copy Editor, Maureen Boyd were all in charge of keeping their staff workers typing, soliciting, clicking, drawing and sketching away. Ms. Johnson, our advisor, rife with wisdom, oversaw everyone, making it possible to create one of the best yearbooks ever!

MAYFIELD STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council's hardworking officers definitely didn't just celebrate all year long. This team of determined and bright women accomplished their goals for the school year '86-'87. Student Body President, Gigi Bannan, successfully headed the Student Council, with great help from 1st Vice President, Bolade Olambiwonnu and 2nd Vice President, Audrey Williams. The Treasurer and Secretary, Michele Scalzo, counted and scribbled away, while Betsy Knox, CAM President, reminded us of the homeless and needy people present in our world. Roksana Badkoubei, Activities Coordinator, made every day at Mayfield a celebration with her new and exciting ideas and Diana Vasily, GAA President, kept us in the sporting spirit. Without them this year would have never been a celebration!

Organized Fun

BURGER BASH

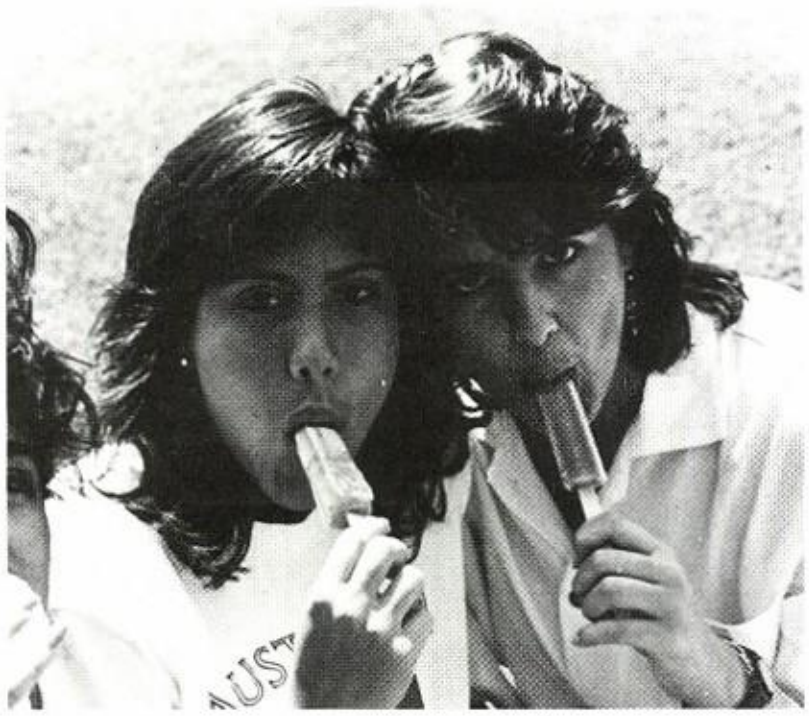
It's a Mayfield Burger!

Thanks to Roksana Badkoubei and her talent as activities coordinator, the entire school was able to celebrate the beginning of the school year with an invigorating barbeque. Justine Bonner and Mary Loftus jammed to the beat in colorful Hawaiian shirts and straw hats while they prepared hamburgers. The rest of the juniors got acquainted with their little sisters and found out freshmen aren't so bad after all.



It's Big Stick Time!

Sisterly Love

The Mayfield tradition of Big and Little Sisters has, over the years, tied the Mayfield family in a close bond. On the first day of the school year, hesitant freshmen were greeted with warm smiles and delicious lunches by their older sisters. They were shown around Mayfield and became familiar with the campus and where their various classes were located. If it wasn't for the assistance of their Big Sisters, lost Freshmen would have been wandering the halls of Mayfield aimlessly. The Freshmen also celebrated a surprise breakfast together with their Big Sisters early one school morning. Through the guidance of their steadfast friends, the Juniors, Freshmen slowly became accustomed to the hustle and bustle of Mayfield. Big Sisters also appreciated the warmth of companionship with their little sisters as they celebrated life at Mayfield together and will continue to celebrate in the future.

This year the Seniors enjoyed the beautiful surroundings of the Big Bear Sacred Heart Retreat Camp and experienced the closest, most fulfilling retreat the class has ever had in their four years at Mayfield. The retreat focused on the pressures, concerns, and worries of the class, and bound the Seniors together in a way none had expected. The warmth and friendship the Senior class discovered upon their retreat continued with them throughout the year, and made this final year their most memorable one.

The Juniors spent their spiritual retreat in the beautiful mountains of Sierra Madre. The calm and tranquil surroundings enabled them to reflect on themselves, their goals, and upcoming years. These two memorable days of group activities, prayer, and meditation helped the class become more united and closer to God.

The Sophomore retreat this year was a great success both for the students and their advisors. The Sophomores presented some truly creative skits according to Sophomore advisor, Ms. Ameer. They had a positive attitude which allowed them to grow closer as a class.

This year Mayfield's class of 1990 experienced a retreat unlike any other previous Freshmen class. For the first time ever the Freshmen slept overnight in the auditorium. In the words of Freshmen advisor, Ms. Van Blair, "It was the best Freshmen retreat ever. The entire class became closer because of their overnight experience."

Get Down and Boogie

Mayfield's Dance Ensemble is a group of dedicated, hardworking and talented young women. The dancers practice weekly, throughout the year, for special dance performances executed on Open House, Carol Night, and the big program at the end of the year. Dr. Salvati, the company's director and choreographer, supports and inspires her students, while creating tremendous dance productions.

So Others May Celebrate....

Luncheons and field trips in support of David Lynch, Los Ninos, Union Station, MEND, and Oxfam America gave Mayfield students a chance to help those in need, and at the same time gave them a sense of worth and dignity. The warm, caring spirit of the Mayfield student body was felt by a lot of people this year, making this one of the best year's for charities.

This year Mayfield presented "Misunderstandings: A Play on Life," with an original script written by the Mayfield faculty and students. "Misunderstandings" was comprised of a series of short vignettes concerning the conflicts and misunderstandings that occur between people in everyday life. Between Marcy Evans' lettuce and the testimony of a homeless woman, the audience was moved to laughter and tears. With the brilliant direction of Ms. Stephanie Jenal, and superb technical effects by her brother and cohort, Mr. James P. Jenal, Mayfield presented one of its best productions in years.

This is . . . our time to celebrate, our time to reflect, our time to appreciate — thank you Ms. Johnson for all of your skillful guidance. Thank you Shannon, for putting so much extra time to produce some of the greatest pictures ever; Maureen, for making it through some frustrating times; Desma, for being so inventive; Chiga, for all of those tiny masterpieces. Carrie, for pulling in all of the money; and to all your staff members, you did a fabulous job.

How do you say thank you, to a school, that so greatly influenced your academic growth? Each year blossoms into a rich and rewarding memory — the friendships that were strong and always there. How do you capsulize that period of time — when every day was a new experience? How do you crystalize its meaning into a few short comments? You cannot!

Mayfield has been the guiding force behind us — completely and unselfishly our "second family." Each friend, each a sculptor . . . shaping us with skills and knowledge — to guide us towards the rewards of setting and accomplishing goals. We have learned there are no limits for learning. Our time at Mayfield was the best! Our faculty at Mayfield was the best! We have learned what our possibilities can be . . . now it is time for each of us, with dedication and purpose, to put our best foot forward on the path to the future. This is just a pause in our friendship, not farewell; as you will hear from each of us AGAIN!

I thank you all for a wonderful four years at Mayfield. Our theme for this year's yearbook to "CELEBRATE," certainly brings it altogether; the celebration of family, good friends, great memories, happiness, love and health. May each of you be blessed with life's best 'celebrations.' Remember — live with zest, love, and style — and always wear a happy smile!

love always,

Delphi
